IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- Students must select softball academy for their Health and Physical Education course during course selection in order to finalize the application.
- Admittance to this class is via application. Students not registered in softball academy will be registered in health and physical education for their current grade.
- This course is for students who are already playing on a softball team and are looking to improve their skills. This is not a learn to play softball course.
- The cost of this program is $300. This can be paid in one cheque or two cheques of $150.
- This class starts between 7:45am and 7:50am each morning depending on training location. Students (for the most part) are responsible for getting to the training location each day. See website for more information.
